The State of Email Marketing
Conducted by Ascend2 and Research Partners
Published November 2021
Email marketing tactics and technology have advanced exponentially since its inception decades ago. Which email trends will marketers be including in their strategies in the year ahead? 58% of marketing professionals will be incorporating personalization tactics in their email strategy next year. Interactive content will also be used in 38% of email strategies in the coming year.
IMPORTANCE OF EMAIL

Most marketers agree that email is still a crucial component of marketing strategies. Nearly one-third (32%) of those surveyed strongly agree that an effective email marketing program will be critical to the success of their overall marketing strategy next year, while another 53% somewhat agree, making up an impressive 85% majority of those surveyed.

EXECUTING AN EFFECTIVE EMAIL MARKETING PROGRAM WILL BE CRITICAL TO THE SUCCESS OF MY OVERALL MARKETING STRATEGY IN THE COMING YEAR.
INTEGRATING EMAIL DATA

Nine out of every 10 marketing professionals surveyed agree that integrating their email marketing data with data from other marketing channels improves campaign performance. This approach allows marketers to make strategic as well as campaign-level decisions based on a more complete picture of their target audience and customer.

INTEGRATING EMAIL MARKETING DATA WITH DATA FROM OTHER CHANNELS (I.E. SOCIAL MEDIA, SMS, ETC.) IMPROVES CAMPAIGN PERFORMANCE.
MEASURING PERFORMANCE

With which key metrics will marketers be gauging the success of their email programs in the coming year? Over one-third (36%) of marketers report that in the year ahead, the most effective KPIs for measuring email performance are Return on Investment (ROI), conversion rate, and click-through rate (CTR). Open rate and click-to-open rate (CTRO) are also considered most effective to over one-quarter of marketers.
